

Madeleine Wing Adler, Ph.D

Community Volunteer

Madeleine Wing Adler, Ph.D. served as a Senior Associate with Penson Associates, where she was a part time leadership coach and consultant to colleges and universities. Dr. Adler served as President of West Chester University of Pennsylvania for 15 years, leading the University with vision and tenacity.

Along with her work at the University, Dr. Adler has been involved in various professional and civic activities. Locally, Dr. Adler was a member of the board of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Philadelphia, the Chester County Historical Society, and was a founding member of the Chester County Fund for Women and Girls.

Nationally, her involvement extends to boards such as the Academic Advisory Board of the Institute for Experimental Learning, the American Council on Education's Commission on the Status of Women, and the Academic Search Consultation Service.

Dr. Adler received her undergraduate degree from Northwestern University and her master's and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Her major field of study is political science.