

Kathy Dean-Bradley, CPA

Belfint, Lyons & Shuman, P.A

Kathy provides strategic planning and tax compliance services. She combines an analytical and scientific background with a progressive approach in solving client problems.

Kathy specializes in serving small businesses, including professional and medical practices, high net worth individuals, estates & trusts, clergy, and nonprofit organizations.

As a Certified QuickBooks ProAdvisor, Kathy has assisted in the development of training and education programs for the firm and clients. She regularly advises her client on the efficient and effective use of their accounting systems.

Kathy earned her B.S from Cornell University and her Masters from Colorado State University.

In addition to her professional experience, Kathy also volunteers with the Girl Scouts of Eastern PA and the YMCA Girls on the Run.