

Michael Dehaven, CPA

Rainer and Company

Mike is a shareholder with Rainer & Company, Certified Public Accountants and Business Consultants. Founded in 1954, Rainer & Company provides local, national and multinational companies, non-profit and government organizations, and individuals with a range of services including comprehensive tax strategies, compliance and attest services, employee benefit plan audits and more.

Mike earned his B.S. in accounting at the University of Dayton, Ohio in 1991. He joined Rainer & Company in 1994 and was made a shareholder in 2004. Mike serves as Chair of the firm's employee benefit plan division. In addition, he is directly responsible for servicing clients in various industries, including construction, manufacturing, real estate, transportation, hospitality, professional service firms, non-profit and government organizations. Mike is also a member of the firm's business consulting division.

Mike and his wife, Kim, live in Westtown Township with their three boys, Chris, Colin and Regan. Amidst his professional and family responsibilities, Mike is an active community volunteer. Prior to serving as a Board member at the Community Foundation, he served as Chair of the Board of the Chester County Chamber of Business and Industry. Mike currently serves on the Board of the Chester County Economic Development Council; Mental Health Partnerships; and the Central and Western Chester County Industrial Development Authority. Mike is an active member of Sts. Simon and Jude Parish in West Chester.