

Wiggie Featherman

Community Volunteer

Wiggie Featherman is an active volunteer and businesswoman, well-known throughout Chester County for a wide array of activities.

Wiggie's contribution of time and generosity is far-reaching. As Friends of West Chester University, Wiggie and her husband John have contributed to an array of campus projects, including serving as members of the Campaign for Excellence Fund Raising Committee. Their help and generosity also contributed to the construction of the new Swope Music Building and the Performing Arts Center.

Wiggie served as a Founding Member of the Chester County Fund for Women and Girls, serving as a Vice Chair for 3 years and Nominating Committee Chair for 3 years.

Wiggie earned a B.S. from Richmond Professional Institute and modeled for several years. Active in the retailing industry, Wiggie successfully completed Strawbridge and Clothier's Executive Training Program, and went on to work in fashion apparel with Joel's in West Chester. For the past decade, she has been an independent businesswoman as sales associate of Worth apparel, helping Chester County's women to look their best.