

Charles Lukens Huston, III

Stewart Huston Charitable Trust & Huston Foundation

Charles Lukens Huston III's influence in public policy, private foundations, and community efforts has been far-reaching, particularly in the areas of human services, health care and community revitalization.

Skip Huston has served on the board of directors of various organizations including the Brandywine Conservancy, the Brandywine YMCA, Coatesville/Brandywine Hospital, the Brandywine Hospital Foundation, the Chester County Community Foundation, Pennsylvanians for Effective Government, and the United Way of Chester County. He was a founding member of Handi-Crafters.

Huston carries on a longstanding tradition of family philanthropy. He serves as Vice President for Community Relations and Director of Operations for The Huston Foundation, which is a private, family, charitable foundation with offices located in Conshohocken, PA. The Huston Foundation was co-founded in 1957 by his father, Charles Lukens Huston, Jr., and aunt, Ruth Huston. In 1963 Mr. Huston was elected to the Board of Directors of the Huston Foundation and continues to serve in that capacity. He also serves on the Board of the Stewart Huston Charitable Trust in Coatesville.
