

John F. McKenna

MacElree Harvey

John F. McKenna Esq. currently works as Partner with MacElree Harvey in West Chester, PA.

John represents clients in all estate and trust matters, complex guardianships, real estate disputes, consumer protection, will contests, trust termination and modifications, corporate disputes, contract interpretation, white-collar crime, driving under the influence (DUI) and broker liability litigation.

John has also expanded his practice to include private mediation. He has been appointed a Special Master by the Court to hear discovery issues and partition matters. John has also been appointed by the Court to be a receiver for some corporations.

John received his Bachelor's Degree from Fairleigh Dickinson University, and his law degree from the Temple University School of Law. John recently finished a term as President of the Chester County Bar Foundation and is the current Vice President of the Chester County Bar Association