Corporate Social Investment Award highlighting business and social responsibility

Amanda Cabot and Peter Kjellerup of Dansko

Amanda Cabot and Peter Kjellerup of Dansko in West Grove use their international footwear business as a springboard into community involvement and philanthropic commitment. Through their exemplary leadership at Dansko, they have redefined the notion of corporate citizenship to include a code of ethics and practices which encourage employees to, in Cabot's words, "take a stand, make a difference, and slay apathy." Cabot and Kjellerup lead Dansko employees by example. They make personal, corporate and foundation contributions to nonprofit causes, and volunteer their time, talents and resources. This award honors Dansko's commitment to values-based, mission-driven business.
