

The Joseph J. D'Amico, Sr. Memorial Fund

“Joe’s focus was always on how the other person was doing.”

Joseph J. D’Amico, Sr., was the Founder and Owner of To-Jo Mushroom in Avondale, PA. A third generation Mushroom Grower, he was well-respected among his peers in the industry. Joe was a founding member of St. Gabriel of the Sorrowful Mother Church in Avondale. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, where he was a Third Degree of Knight.

Joe loved being with his family and friends, and his greatest passion was watching his children play sports and feeding the whole crowd after the event.

In 2009, this Fund was initiated in memory of Joe. It provides grants to charitable organizations whose missions and activities most closely reflect those that Joe believed in and supported during his lifetime.

In its first decade, annually the Fund has provided scholarship grants to Catholic School for hard-working, deserving students at St. Patrick’s Elementary School in Kennett Square, and Assumption BVM School in West Grove. Students are recommended by the School to the Fund Committee.
