“...Eliminating racism —
Empowering women...”

The YWCA Scholarship Foundation was established by the YWCA of Chester County at the Chester County Community Foundation to assist a non-traditional, female student pursuing a degree in post-secondary education.

The YWCA is the oldest and largest multicultural women's organization in the world. The mission of the YWCA is to empower women and girls of all ethnicities by providing them education and supportive services, and to eliminate racial and economic discrimination in our community.

Scholarship recipients are awarded a $1,000 scholarship in the form of financial aid. Scholarship recipients can reapply to receive continuing scholarship assistance as they pursue their degree.
