Executive Director,
Chester County Bar Association

Matthew Holliday currently serves as the Executive Director of the Chester County Bar Association. Matt is a Political Science graduate from West Chester University of Pennsylvania, and he still resides in West Chester.

Committed to helping those in need, Matt serves on 13 boards of local nonprofits, including holding the presidency for The Friends Association for Care and Protection of Children, The West Chester Rotary Club, the Domestic Violence Center of Chester County, and the West Chester Downtown Foundation.

To recognize Matt for all his non-profit work and leadership within Chester County, the Greater West Chester Chamber of Commerce elected him 2018 Citizen of the Year. Matt continues to strive to create a bright future for all the residents of Chester County.
