

Denise M. Antonelli, Esq.

Gawthrop Greenwood

Denise M. Antonelli, Esq. has served as a panelist for the Chester County Community Foundation, informing West Chester University students about the development of trust and estate practices and advising nonprofits on including philanthropy in their estate plans.

Denise has practiced law in West Chester for the last 30 years. She has been a partner with Gawthrop Greenwood since 2016 and a member of the firm since 2012. Prior to practicing law, Denise worked as a reporter and writer for the Delaware State News and Delaware Today Magazine.

Denise is currently the President of the Board of Directors of ACT in Faith of Greater West Chester, serving those who are unemployed and underemployed. Denise is also a member of the Chester County Estate Planning Council.

Denise received her law degree from Widener University School of Law. She has two daughters and lives in Parkesburg, PA.

CHESTER COUNTY community
FOUNDATION