

Stephanie Pahides Kalogredis, Esq.

Lamb McErlane

Stephanie Pahides Kalogredis, Esq. serves the West Chester community through her practice in Estate Planning and Estate and Trust Administration and Wealth Transfer and Succession Planning at Lamb McErlane. She assists her clients in reaching their estate planning goals by crafting a personalized solution.

Stephanie enjoys sharing her expertise by lecturing for professional groups and organizations. She was the featured speaker at the October 2011 Haverford Trust Company's Women's Speaker Series. She also authored and presented for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's continuing legal education programs in July of 2010.

Stephanie currently serves on the Wealth Management Division Advisory Board of Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation. She is also a past president of the Chester County Estate Planning Counsel and has served on several counsels and special committees.

Stephanie received her law degree from Villanova University School of Law alongside her husband Bill.

CHESTER COUNTY community
FOUNDATION