NATALIE A.W. LEAF FUND SCHOLARSHIP

The Natalie A.W. Leaf Fund, established in 1990, provides scholarships and stipends to Chester County residents who are pursuing study in arts, crafts, or trades to create or restore the home.

A native of West Chester, Miss Leaf graduated from West Chester State Teacher's College and earned a Master's in Public Administration from Pennsylvania State University. She then taught art to elementary school children for 42 years.

In the 1960s, she began restoring her historic West Chester home and discovered a shortage of skilled craftspeople. Her dismay toward this shortage and love of historical objects led her to establish a charitable trust "to help residents of Chester County learn to use their hands as tools."

Upon her death in 1989, Miss Leaf's home and antique collection were auctioned to establish this fund, to award scholarships in accordance with her intent.
