

Elizabeth Zwaan Milne, Esq.
Davis Bennett Spiess & Livingood, LLC

Elizabeth joined the firm in 2018, where her practice is focused on estate planning, trust and estate administration, tax planning, business planning, and real estate transactions. Prior, she was an associate attorney at suburban law firms where she developed her passion for the trust and estates area of law.

She earned a Bachelor's degree in International Relations & Legal Studies from University of Delaware, a Juris Doctorate from Widener University School of Law, and her Master of Laws in Taxation with an Estate Planning Certificate at Villanova University, School of Law.

Elizabeth now lives with her husband, William, and their two sons, in Berwyn. Elizabeth actively maintains her roots through her alma maters and is also a founding board member of the Brian C. Zwaan Legacy Fund. This is a charitable organization created in memory of Elizabeth's father, Brian C. Zwaan, which promotes educational programs in the Philadelphia area.
