

Mark McCarron, CFA

Principal, Chief Investment Officer
Wescott Financial Advisory Group, LLC

Mark is a Principal, Chief Investment Officer at Wescott Financial Advisory Group, LLC where he leads their Investment Research Group and co-chair's the Investment Committee. Working with clients he researches investment strategies and portfolio solutions and is also responsible for client based communication.

Formerly with SEI Investments, Mark gained a wealth of knowledge in the management industry helping clients across the globe in the U.K., Europe, Asia, and South Africa. While heading the London Investment Team as the Managing Director, he had the opportunity to represent the firm globally and gain experience with traditional and alternative assets.

After receiving his Bachelor's in Finance with an English concentration from Boston College's Carroll School of Management, Mark went on to study international economics and comparative economic systems at the London School of Economics.