

Natalie Ortega-Moran, Ed.D.

School Principal
William C. Lewis Elementary

Natalie is a dedicated and enthusiastic educator with a commitment to learning and development. She currently serves as School Principal for William C. Lewis Elementary in the Red Clay School District. She previously served as the Vice Principal of the Avon Grove School District, where she was responsible for student equity and engagement concerns. She also has years of experience working as a Spanish, French, and ESL teacher.

In 2020 Natalie earned a Diversity, Equity, Inclusion (DEI) Certificate from Cornell University. She now works to provide an awareness of DEI initiatives with community stakeholders. Natalie is passionate about the need to ensure equitable access to devices and internet service for students. She published an article in the Pennsylvania Administrator Magazine in 2021 on this topic.

In 2019 she was a panelist for the PASA Women's Caucus Conference in Hershey PA, She was a Lions' Citizen of the Year Award recipient in 2019 and a Pennsylvania State Human Civil Rights Award recipient in 2004. Natalie served on the board of the Neighborhood Services Center in Oxford, PA from 2011-2015.