

Jacqueline Motyl, Esq.

Partner

Fox Rothschild Attorneys at Law, LLP

A partner at Fox Rothschild, Jacqueline focuses her practice on taxation and wealth planning while also being a member of the Chester County Bar Association and the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Additionally, she serves on the Board of Directors for the Exton Region Chamber of Commerce and the Coatesville Area Senior Center.

Working with nonprofit organizations outside of the office allows Jacqueline to be well versed in helping them while on the job. She provides guidance on nonprofit reorganizations and works with groups that are experiencing exempt organization compliance issues.

Jacqueline received her Bachelor's degree from Boston University School of Management, then got her J.D. at Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law. Furthering her education, she attended Villanova University where she received her LL.M. in Taxation.
