

Mary T. Holleran

Mary T. Holleran is a generous and caring community member. She grew up in a family that placed charitable giving as a priority.

Mary graduated from Downingtown High School and later earned her Bachelor's Degree in Fine Arts from Regis College in Boston. For 29 years, Mary owned Studio 3, a custom framing shop in the heart of Downingtown.

Mary gives back by donating her time, talent and treasure to local organizations in Chester County. She is a long-term board member of the Brandywine Health Foundation; she also served as the Chair of the Foundation's garden party for 10 years. Mary was a board member of the Brandywine YMCA for more than 25 years as well as a founding board member of the Downingtown Main Street program.

Mary's recent passion has been the Downingtown Library as a donor and major fundraiser.
