

Nick G. Hoffman, CPA

Sole Practitioner

Nick Hoffman assists taxpayers and small businesses with taxes as a Sole Practitioner in Kennett Square, PA.

In addition to his experience as a Certified Public Accountant, Nick is on the Chester County Community Foundation Finance Committee and is a board member of Brandywine Valley Active Aging. Nick graduated from West Chester University in 2009 with a B.S. in accounting. He also served as an accounting intern with the Chester County Community Foundation from 2007 to 2009.

He earned his CPA designation in 2011. Formerly a partner at Boylston Hoffman in West Chester, after 13 years he founded his own firm in 2023. His experience includes accounting and financial statement preparation, corporate and individual tax services and payroll tax services. He has worked with clients in a variety of industries including technology, construction, manufacturing, veterinary services, investment and financial services, and architectural and engineering.