

Ginny Kricun

Ginny is a skilled executive with over thirty-five years of corporate management experience reaching across various fields, including social policy planning, public relations, marketing, philanthropy management, publishing and project management.

Renowned as a community leader, social change innovator, and consensus builder, Ginny is deeply committed to philanthropy and serving as a fourth-generation Philadelphian dedicated to societal betterment.

Throughout her career, Ginny has held key positions at prestigious companies, including COO at Mogin Press, Inc., Director of Community Relations at Sun CO., partner at The Idea Works, VP of Public Affairs at Western Savings Bank, Director of Market Research at BioSciences Information Services, Assistant Trust Analyst at The Fidelity Bank. Presently, she contributes her time and experience as a board member at Gaudenzia Inc.

Ginny's remarkable contributions have earned her several awards and acknowledgements, including the HELP award from the Girl Scouts of Greater Philadelphia, the Philadelphia Clearing House's inaugural Resources Award, the Philadelphia Liberty Bell Award, and the Prince Music Theater Service Award.

CHESTER COUNTY community
FOUNDATION

