

Biography

Jason Arbacheski, CAP®

Gift Planning & Stewardship Director Chester County Community Foundation

Jason Arbacheski serves as Director of Gift Planning and Stewardship for the Chester County Community Foundation in West Chester. He develops and maintains working relationships with fund advisors discussing their charitable priorities, charitable desires, and gift planning ideas. He also identifies and cultivates potential fund advisors (individuals, families, businesses, private foundations) and professional advisors, to help attract new endowed funds to the Foundation.

In his stewardship work, Jason helps donors experience the joy and satisfaction of strategic, heart-felt philanthropy. He previously served as Director of Development for Community Volunteers in Medicine and spent a decade working for Main Line Health in various development, communications, and external affairs roles.

Jason holds a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from The University of Scranton and earned his Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP®) designation from The American College of Financial Services, King of Prussia. A past Board member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals Greater Philadelphia Chapter (AFP-GPC), Jason volunteers as Co-Chair of the Chapter's Government and Legislative Affairs Committee and serves as a Judge for The Pennsylvania Society's Benjamin Franklin Scholarship Award.

He resides in Willistown Township with his family.
